Clinical Guidelines

This bulletin collates guidance published in January 2020 by the National Institute for Health and Care Excellence (NICE), other bodies that oversee, support and deliver health and social care in England, the Royal Colleges and national societies. Guidelines or guideline commentaries recently published as journal articles, where an author is affiliated to a UK/NHS organisation, are also included. These are presented to assist in the aim of continuously improving the quality of care and outcomes for patients; and are arranged broadly by specialty. Click the specialty name to go directly to that section.
